(b) The client has submitted the correction and corrective action for the non conformities raised within the stipulated time and ISPL has accepted the same

(c) In case of a major non-conformance, the effectiveness of correction and corrective action is verified by ISPL's auditors as agreed and the non-conformity either closed or downgraded to minor.

If the client is not recommended for certification ISPL shall accordingly inform the client.

2.6 Issue of certificate

ISPL shall issue the certificate against the applicable standard to the client only after the closure of all the non-conformances as stated in section 2.5 of this agreement.

The Certificate is the property of ISPL, and shall be produced to ISPL as and when requested.

The certification will be valid for a period of three years from the date of approval of certification, subject to the satisfactory maintenance of the Management System as confirmed through agreed surveillance audits.

2.7 Surveillance Audit

Surveillance audits shall be conducted regularly at the client site at least once in a year to confirm that the Client's Management System continues to conform to the requirements of the standard to which it is certified.

The first surveillance audit shall take place within twelve months from the Date of Certification decision (Certificate Issue Date) and failure to comply with this requirement will lead to suspension and subsequent withdrawal of certification.

For the non-conformity raised during the surveillance audit the conditions stipulated in section 2.5 of this agreement shall be applicable.

In the case that a surveillance audit cannot be carried out because the client's operations are affected owing to factors outside its control, e.g.: employee union strike, natural calamity, etc. the case shall be presented to ISPL for a decision.

ISPL shall submit a formal report to the client.

2.8 Re-certification Audit

The purpose of recertification audit is to confirm the continued conformity and effectiveness of the client's management system as a whole and its continued relevance and applicability for the scope of certification.

The Re-Certification audit shall include site audit and shall consider the performance of management system over the period of certification and shall also include a review of previous surveillance audit reports. The recertification audit may have a stage –1 audit in situations where there have been significant changes to the management system, the client or changes to legislation.

ISPL shall conduct the recertification audit at least 60 days in advance to the expiration of certification so that the client has time to implement corrective actions before the expiry of the certification

INTERCONTINENTAL SYSTEMCERT PVT. LTD.
(Formerly Known as Indraprastha Systemcert Pvt. Ltd.)
CERTIFICATION AGREEMENT

For non-conformities raised during the audit the conditions identified in section 2.5 of this agreement shall become applicable.

ISPL shall submit a formal report to the client.

2.10 Notice of Changes by ISPL

ISPL shall inform the client in advance any changes to its requirements for certification and shall subsequently verify that each client complies with this requirement. It shall necessitate a special audit in certain cases.

2.11 Notice of Changes by the client

Client shall inform ISPL, without delay, of matters that may affect the capability of management system to continue to fulfill the requirements of the standard used for certification. These may include changes related to,

- (a) The legal, commercial, organizational status or ownership,
- (b) Organization and management (e.g. changes in key managerial, decision making or technical staff)
- (c) Contact address and sites
- (d) Scope of operation under the certified management system
- (e) Major changes to the management system and processes.

OHSMS Clients

- (a) Any significant events including fatal incidents, serious injuries, occupational disease or legal action by a regulatory authority.
- (b) The certified client informs to ISPL, without delay, of the occurrence of a serious incident or breach of regulation necessitating the involvement of the competent regulatory authority.
- (c) Inform ISPL, at the time of surveillance or re-certification of any OHS related findings by third –parties,
- (d) Breach of an act of parliament, or a contravention of a regulatory requirement.
- (e) Definition for “legal compliance” is used: “Conformity with the law, in such a way that the intended outcome is realised.” Client will take all responsibility of Legal Compliances As certification of an OHSMS against the requirements of the applicable OHSMS standard is not a guarantee of legal compliance (neither is any other means of control, including government or other type of control and/or legal compliance inspections or other forms of certification or verification), it is a proven and efficient tool to achieve and maintain such legal compliance. It is recognised that accredited OHSMS certification demonstrates that an independent third-party (ISPL) has evaluated and confirmed that the organization has a demonstrably effective OHSMS to ensure the fulfilment of its policy commitments including legal compliance. Ongoing or potential non-compliances with the applicable legal requirements may show a lack of management control within the organisation and its OHSMS and the conformity with the standard are carefully reviewed.

ISPL shall review the changes and accordingly discuss with client for an early verification to ensure that the capability of the management system continues to fulfill the requirements of the applicable standard.

2.12 Maintaining Certifications

The Certification is maintained for a period of 3 years under the following conditions.

- (a) The Surveillance Audits are conducted as planned and the client has demonstrated that it continues to satisfy the requirements of the management system standard as confirmed by ISPL.
- (b) All the non-conformance raised during previous surveillance are closed within the time frame agreed and correction and corrective actions for the non conformities raised during the current audit are identified and accepted by ISPL as per conditions specified in section 2.5 of this agreement.
- (c) The Internal Audit and the management reviews are conducted as scheduled and there are no issues pending.
- (d) The client shall maintain suitable records of customer complaints and keep the records of investigation and remedial actions taken with respect to such complaints for verification by the ISPL auditors.
- (e) All outstanding dues to ISPL are paid.
